Thank You. A Magnificent effort was how the local organiser of Poppy Scotland described the recent Fund Raising effort by Members of our Lodge and friends who contributed. The Collection from the successful Memorial Service Meeting on 12th. November was donated and was put in the Poppy Scotland collection can. We sold special Poppy Scotland lapel pins at £3 each and including donations raised £195. The can was passed round at our Installation as we have stated at previous Installations, Lodge St. Bryde never hand back a can to Poppy Scotland which is not full ! The total result was a fantastic £707.60p. The Members of our Lodge would like to thank everyone for their generosity, especially the Brethren from the Birmingham area who attended our Installation.

Lodge Douglas No. 1557. Bro. Tom Lynch, RWM headed a Deputation of sixteen Brethren from our Lodge to Lodge Douglas No. 1557, East Kilbride on Friday 12th. December 2014. This was the first visit to Lodge Douglas by our Lodge and we were very well received. Bro. Bryce Morrison, WJW led a Degree Team consisting of, Tom Lynch, Bill Jack, Russell Parsons, Duncan Mulholland, Stuart Jack who conferred an excellent E.A. Degree exemplification. Bro. Bryce Morrison, WJW made a suitable reply to the Vote of Thanks and complemented the Degree Team and Bro. Alex Hamilton, Instruction Class Master.
