Important Notice.

At the Grand Lodge Communication on Thursday 6th. February, 2020. The Grand Master Mason proposed that Grand Lodge Law 126 be suspended from 6th. February for one year.

This means that a Brother wishing to clear his Test Fee arrears with his Lodge (usually two years + the current year) from the 6th. February will only require to pay one year to clear his arrears.

In our Lodge this means a Fee of £35.

If a Brother of Lodge St. Bryde wishes to take up this offer and clear his arrears contact the Lodge Secretary.

Note, Due to the present circumstances this period has been extended to February 2022

Lounge Re-opening. Brethren, it seems like a very long time ago since we last met on a Friday night for a beer and a chat.

Hopefully if things go according to the Government plan Pubs and Clubs will be able to open from Monday 17th. May 2021 serving drinks indoors. At time of writing Pubs and Clubs have just opened, but can only serve alcohol outdoors. It looks as if the restrictions which were in force last year will again be in place, meaning a two metre system will again be in operation in the lounge. If the situation changes, Members will be notified by e mail and kept up to date.

Restoration Works Ongoing. Once the new display cabinet is in position the Lounge and entrance carpets will be replaced over the summer period. This will complete this phase of the works.

Well Done Martin. Bro. Martin Parrack presented the proceeds of his sponsored walk on behalf of Lodge St. Bryde No. 579 to Kate Davarzadeh of Acacia Family Support Pre and postnatal depression support services. He also presented a similar cheque on behalf of St. Peters Lodge.

Grand Lodge.

Grand Lodge have recently released a series of regulations and recommendation paving the way forward for a return to our Lodge Meetings.

The Grand Lodge recommendations are due to be discussed at a joint meeting of the heads of all Scottish Masonic Orders in early June. All Masonic activity in Scotland has been suspended until this date. It is hoped at this meeting a joint agreement will be reached and a clear way forward mapped out. Lodge St. Bryde will remain closed until after our recess and it is again possible that we could meet in September. Lodges who meet during the summer months of July, August may be in a position to return under the issued guidelines. As the situation continues to improve, the government may relax further regulations which in turn will allow Grand Lodge the opportunity to relax its regulations. However it is too soon to predict what position the country will be in in September. As we have plenty of time in hand until our next Regular Meeting, we will review the situation then and inform the Members of the procedures to be adopted.

Brethren, 30th April 2021

During the past week both Grand Secretary and I have been asked on a few occasions – “When can we open our Lodges again?” The Heads of Orders are meeting on 9th June to appraise the situation but until then all Lodges in Scotland will remain closed. I am cautiously confident that we will see movement after that date and in preparation, Grand Committee agreed yesterday morning to issue guidance notes to all Lodges at home and abroad to assist in the process of reopening whenever that will be. The guidance notes will be equally relevant to our Brethren in the Districts and Superintendencies provided they use them in conjunction with local laws and guidance. Further guidance will be issued shortly in respect of the use of Lodge premises by other organisations. I am aware that such activity is a vital source of revenue for some Lodges. Legal advice is being sought on the matter, but we will ensure that we do all in our power to safeguard Lodge Trustees and members.

W.R. McGhee, Grand Master Mason.
